Program Arranged for Public Opening of New City Hall Friday Eve

Col. Herman Hall to Deliver Short Address On Splendid Type of Architecture of New City Building

Public Invited to Inspect Building Friday Afternoon and Evening and to Join In Ceremonies, 7:30 to 9

Both city trustees and tax payers will be heard Friday night when the public has been invited to inspect the new city hall which will be officially opened at that time. During the afternoon, from 3 until 5, and later in the evening, from 7:30 until 9, people are invited to visit the structure, and be shown through by members of the official family of the city, the architect and the contractor, all of whom will be on hand.

Floral offerings of all kinds will be accepted, and it is hoped that the entire building may be decorated with baskets of flowers. Visitors from Arcadia and Monrovia will be present, especially in the evening, when a brief program will be given, under the direction of Professor Oscar Selling. Following the musical numbers, Col. Herman Hall will say a few words on behalf of the city councilmen, and will be answered by some representative of the tax payers. Chairman Earl Topping, of the council will be master of ceremonies.

The building, just completed, will house all city departments, including the clerk's office, the water department, the office for the city engineer, attorney, marshal and his men, city nurse, as well as the court and an assembly room.

There is a large basement, where it is hoped to fit out community rooms for boys and young men, an apartment for the firemen, over the engine house, and two jail cells. Completed, with furniture included, the building will cost approximately $24,000.

Library Will Be Opened to Public Jan. 27

Famous Huntington Collection to Be Viewed by Public

The famous Huntington library and art exhibit will be opened to the public for the first time on January 27, from 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. and from that time on until further notice will be open during those hours on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, it was announced today. The gardens immediately surrounding the house will also be thrown open to public inspection, but the entire grounds will not be open until later.

As much as possible the home of Mr. Huntington will be kept as he left it. The remarkable collection of books and manuscripts, as well as paintings and other works of art, gathered at the San Marino residence by Mr. Huntington, has been willed to the public for research work, and a board of five trustees has worked out a system under which visitors may be admitted.

Admission will be by application cards only.

Applications will be filed in order of receipt but not more than five cards of admission will be issued to any one applicant and children under 10 years of age will not be admitted. For the immediate present the practice of the library in restricting the number of admissions to approximately 200 daily will be followed.

All of the energies of the administrative staff have been concentrated upon the preparation of the art collections and public exhibitions. The opening of the grounds to visitors presents an entirely different problem. For the present it will be possible to permit visitors on exhibition days to see the grounds immediately near the house. The rest of the grounds will be open as soon as possible.

Bridlepath System To Be Discussed at Monrovia Meeting

Residents of Sierra Madre who are interested in horseback riding are invited to attend a meeting of San Gabriel Valley enthusiasts to be held at the Aztec Hotel in Monrovia, January 24, at 7 o'clock. It is to be a "dinner" meeting and those who wish to enjoy the dinner may make reservations at $1.25 each.

The meeting is sponsored by the San Gabriel Development Association and the matter under discussion will be a proposal for planning a system of bridle paths in the San Gabriel Valley.

Among the speakers will be W. W. Mines, president L. A. National Horse Show; Ross Campbell, realtor, of Los Angeles; W. LeRoy Brown, vice president Bridle Path Association of California; Wm. J. Fox, regional planning commission Los Angeles county. Jay Albert, editor of "Bridle Bits" is one of the prime movers in popularizing the horse in the San Gabriel Valley, and on Wednesday evening of last week he was successful in organizing an association at Glendora. It is his purpose to arouse interest in the development of bridle paths thruout Southern California to such an extent that connecting trails will reach all sections.

M. D. Welsher, who was confined to his home several days of last week on account of illness, was again able to be at the store Monday.

Little Money Is Spent On Viking Float

Committee Makes Report on Amount Expended for Local Entry

Two hundred and five dollars and ninety-four cents was the sum expended on the float which took third place in the Tournament of Roses for Sierra Madre, it was announced following the recent check-up by the committee in charge. The money, all of it promised, is today being collected by W. R. Humphries, who with Henry Isaacs served on the finance committee.

The amount of money expended on the striking float was so unusually low when compared with the effect achieved, that the committee members were astounded when final accounts were available. Mrs. Ralph Stewart prepared the following report so that the people of the community, who assisted on the float, might know just how the money was spent.

Flowers, by far the largest item, $118.20; body of the float, $30; costumes, 12 Viking suits, $29; cloth, $16.85; sundries, $5.05; hardware, 6.84.

The beautiful cup, won by the float, will be one of the cherished possessions of the community, and will be on exhibit at the new city hall, following the opening of that building.

A great deal of the credit for the low cost of the project was due to Robert Corlett, who built the shell of the boat, and to the Bassett and Washburn Nurseries, who donated the use of the truck for as long as the city needed it. In the past the truck has been rented, at a high price per day.

Mrs. Milton Steinberger, Mrs. Emil Sturthal, Mrs. Ralph Stewart, Mrs. Walter Poehler, Robert Corlett, Henry Isaacs and W. R. Humphries composed the committee in charge of the float.

Legion Business Discussed When Leaders Gather

Matters pertaining to the American Legion for the coming year were discussed at the meeting of all district adjutants and commanders at the home of Don Messer, state adjutant, in South Pasadena Sunday afternoon. Among those present were R. R. Moreland, commander of the local post and R. W. Stewart, past commander.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Shaffer of Meadville, Pa., and their two sons have come to Sierra Madre to spend the winter and have rented the Wamrock residence at 258 East Central. Dr. Shaffer is a son of Daniel Shaffer and a brother of Mrs. Albert M. Wheeling, who are hoping he will decide to locate here.

Fine Program Presented at Nurses Home

Ex-service Men and Nurses At San Fernando Hear Entertainment

Auxiliary Arranged Splendid Program for Veterans At Hospital

So greatly appreciated was the program presented Saturday night at the San Fernando hospital by local artists under the auspices of the American Legion Auxiliary, that Mrs. Blanche Muskrath, unit hospital chairman, who directed the event, has been asked that it be presented again in the daytime for the special benefit of the patients who must remain in bed. The request has been made by the Red Cross director who reports that the ex-service men and nurses at the hospital have voted it one of the best yet presented at the institution.

The entertainment included selections by the Arboretum quartet, composed of James Heasley, Joe Eastwood, Dave and Jack Buchan, solo numbers by Mr. Eastwood, Mr. Jack Buchan and Mrs. May Barlow. Mrs. W. C. Gruit acted as accompanist, adding materially to the success of the program.

A short sketch, "The Raft," was presented by Dave Buchan and James Hawks, and proved most amusing, being heartily applauded by the ex-service men and women. Readings and dance interpretations by Evelyn Smith, petit pupil of the Payne Academy of dancing also were enthusiastically received. The last named "act" was obtained thru a special dispensation of Col. James, in charge of the hospital, as children are barred from the grounds, except when placed in the creche established by the Auxiliary for that purpose.

The San Fernando hospital is the only government-owned institution in the United States having a separate building for women who served in the World War.

Those attending the entertainment from Sierra Madre besides those on the program were Mes. Kittie Buie, Jas. Farndale, Joe R. Eastwood, Blanch Muskrath, Jas. Heasley, and Ray Grant and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Stewart. The Auxiliary wishes especially to thank the artists who helped make the event a success, and Mr. Grant, who furnished an automobile for the transportation of most of the artists on the program. On the up trip, Mr. Grant carried nine persons, besides himself, in his seven-passenger car.

Also present at the entertainment were Mrs. Minnie Speer Hill, president of the county council; Dr. John Hill and Mr. and Mrs. K. N. Russell, all of Azusa.

Parish Re-elects Vestry Board At Meeting Thursday

The vestry board of the Church of the Ascension is to remain the same during the coming year, it was announced following the annual church meeting last Thursday evening. The board is composed of the following, working with the Rev. H. B. Moore:

T. M. Webster, senior warden and treasurer; James Hawks, junior warden; Carl Pegler, clerk and Fred Griebenow, Howard Leiben, Hall Perry, Thomas H. Flather, Sam Graham and Dr. Rich.

One hundred and twenty-two ballots were cast at the business meeting which followed 6:30 dinner at the parish house, and it was decided that there be a special meeting of the vestry in the near future to amend the by-laws of the parish.

Women of the Guild were in charge of the dinner and the decorations. Following dinner there was a brief social time before the business session was called.

Owner of Lion Farm To Talk at Breakfast

The Mission Play Instrumental Trio and Barry Gill, soloist, will entertain the members of the Foothill Breakfast Club Thursday morning in what promises to be one of the most interesting programs offered for some time.

The speaker for the morning will be Charles Gay of Gay's Lion Farm at El Monte, who is expected to tell "Leo's" good and bad points.

Important Matter To Be Discussed At Public Dinner

Plans are being made for a chamber of commerce dinner to be held during February. The affair, which will be the first for several months, will be open to all members and guests and an important question will be brought before the public at that time. The event was discussed at the meeting of the directors in the chamber of commerce offices last night, and committees were appointed as follows: C. W. Jones, Dr. John Woehler, Gordon Brooks and Walter Poehler.

At last night's meeting, J. M. Campbell, new director of the organization, was unanimously elected as Sierra Madre director on the board of directors of the Associated Chambers of Commerce.

An expression of sympathy was extended to Mrs. Jessica Wright, member of the board, upon the recent loss of her husband, who passed away last week.

School Group to Meet Wednesday

First meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association since the Thanksgiving holidays will be held Wednesday afternoon at the school, and an interesting program has been planned. Mrs. R. R. Moreland, who has recovered from her recent extended illness, will preside.

Scouts Given Famous Pony By Horseman

W. K. Kellogg Presents Boys With Champion Welsh Horse

Silverlight, a beautiful white Welsh pony, three times champion of England before he was brought to this country by W. K. Kellogg, breakfast-food king, has come to Sierra Madre to make his home and will be kept at the E. B. DeGroot stables on E. Live Oak.

The pony, which has been housed in the famous Arabian horse stables on the picturesque Kellogg estate in the San Jose hills west of Pomona, was presented Saturday by Mr. Kellogg to E. B. DeGroot, who received him for the Boy Scouts of America. Mr. DeGroot is a Los Angeles scout executive.

The presentation took place on the court at the entrance to the Spanish type stables, where are kept 40 of the finest Arabian horses in the world. Several scout troops from the district were represented, and during the presentation all uniformed scouts stood at rigid attention, forming a line to the north of the court.

The pony, obtained by Mr. Kellogg from Lady Wentworth in England, is valued at $6,000 and will be housed at the home of Mr. DeGroot, who owns a small stable of horses and is an experienced horseman. It will be used in all general Boy Scout celebrations and parades, and will be available for any general gathering of Boy Scouts of America.

In making the presentation Mr. Kellogg touched briefly on his career, advising the boys to "stick to one thing, stick to it long enough and you are bound to succeed. Work hard and take an interest in your work."

He also mentioned that he has seven grandsons, most of whom are or will be Eagle Scouts, and stated that he was intensely interested in Scout activities.

Mr. Kellogg has contributed heavily and has sponsored many Scout activities in Battle Creek, having donated a $200,000 building to Troop 11, of which his son was a member, besides having equipped a summer camp for two week outings to all Scouts with merit badges.

Election Boards Are Named by County

Appointment of the election boards for this district have just been announced by Mrs. W. D. Paul, who has been working out of the office of Supervisor Fred T. Bealy since Saturday. Judges and clerks, with one or two exceptions, have been selected in all precincts of Sierra Madre.

The fact that election time is approaching has been brought home to Sierra Madre residents through registrations which have been made during the past week. All voters are asked to register at this time.

Red Cross Elects New Board of Directors At Annual Business Meet

Balance of $830.87 Remains in Treasury of Local Chapter According to Report at Session Friday Afternoon

Board of Directors to Meet Thursday to Elect Officers for Ensuing Year; $500.00 Left to City

A balance of $830.87 remains to the credit of the local chapter of the American Red Cross, it was learned following the annual meeting and election of board of directors at the chamber of commerce rooms last Friday afternoon. That the balance be kept on hand for an emergency was the opinion of those present.

Drivers Escape Serious Injuries When Cars Clash

Although two cars were badly damaged in a collision at the intersection of Mountain Trail and Grand View this morning, at 8:30, the occupants of the machines, William Feigenbaum and son Michael, of 269 East Grand View, and Kay Ishoy, Sierra Madre canyon, escaped serious injury. Mr. Ishoy has a sprained shoulder, but the other two were not injured.

The collision occurred in the exact center of the intersection, the Feigenbaum automobile, driven by Michael, being struck broadside. Ishoy was driving south on Mountain Trail and Feigenbaum was headed west on Grand View. The force of the collision turned the lighter roadster, driven by Ishoy, completely around, but neither car turned over.

New Cafe Owner To Take Charge 1st of February

The Sierra Madre Cafe will change hands on the first of February, when J. W. Lee of Los Angeles will take over the proprietorship from Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Halpin, who have managed the cafe for the past two years.

Mr. Lee comes from the famous Bluebird Cafe on Hoover and Adams streets in Los Angeles, and will purchase a home here for his family. Mrs. Lee and their daughter, Fern, who is attending school in Pasadena, expect to come to Sierra Madre in a few days. The Lees have been coming to Sierra Madre for several years past and their intention to make their permanent home here has been a matter of long anticipation.

Mr. and Mrs. Halpin have made the cafe a popular eating place through the splendid meals they have served during their ownership.

Browning Circle Hears of Sisters Of Famous Poets

More than usual interest was shown in the meeting of the Browning Club Sunday afternoon, when Dr. Luella Clay Carson, former president of Mills College, and Dean of Oregon University, was the honored guest. The group gathered at the home of Miss Ella Shepard Bush, and while the topic was "Brothers and Sisters of Poetry," special attention was given to Browning and his sister Sarahanna, who made a home for the poet for twenty-three years, following the death of his wife.

Other sisters of famous men who played an important part in the careers of their brothers were Lady Herbert, Sir Sidney Phillip's sister, who published his "Arcadia" after his death; Wadsworth and his sister Dorothy; Charles and Mary Lamb; Sir Wm. Herschel and his sister Caroline; John Greenleaf Whittier and his sister Elizabeth, and Frances Parkman and his sister Elizabeth.

An unusually large attendance marked the session, which was voted one of the finest held this season.

The year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bandy suffered painful burns when her hand came in contact with a gas heater last Saturday. She is now reported to be recovering nicely.

Robert Mitchell, who for the past several years has served as chairman of the board, reported that during the recent drive 774 members had been taken into the organization, with a total of $1,677.75, which represented two $25 memberships, 74 $4 or $5 memberships and 691 $1 memberships. The community was 4th in the state to get its quota of members, which was 750.

Herbert Ingraham, treasurer of the local chapter, reported that during the year $1178.50 had been added to the balance of $866.14 from December, 1926, making a total of $2044.64. The sum of $1213.77 was expended, leaving the balance on hand $830.87.

Mr. Mitchell reported that the only regular monthly expenditures were $10 per month for groceries for a needy family and one quart of milk daily for nine families.

Directors for the coming year were elected as follows: Mrs. M. D. Welcher, Mrs. J. O. Smith, Mrs. Laura Cline, Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, Woodson Jones, Miss Vannier, Miss Jean Woodard, Mrs. Jessica Wright, Fred Griebenow, George B. Morgridge and Mrs. Barker.

A meeting of the directors Thursday of this week will be held for the purpose of electing officers, and it is suggested that the officers be others than those on the board. It was also announced that in the near future the chapter would come into possession of $500 from the estate of Frank Monroe Smith.

Growers paid $362,405 For Citrus Fruit

Shipment of 610 Cars Fruit During Year Nets Large Sum

With the shipment of 610 cars of citrus fruit during the 1927 season, the Sierra Madre-Lamanda Citrus Association enjoyed a highly successful year, according to the reports read at the annual meeting held last week. The shipments included 244,000 boxes of oranges, lemons and grapefruit, which netted $632,405 for the growers.

J. C. Pegler of Sierra Madre was elected vice president and Col. Herman Hall was elected director. The complete list of officers elected is as follows:

M. Morgan, president; C. J. Pegler, vice president; F. G. Webster, secretary-manager; J. B. Coulton, treasurer; F. H. Macpherson, D. H. Munhall, Dr. J. Eliot Coit, orange executive committee members; S. J. Pegler, E. T. Richardson, T. Penton Knight, lemon executive committee members; E. Pollard and Col. Herman Hall.

Plans for an expansion program in the association were announced at the meeting and hopes expressed for an exceptional season in 1928, according to Mr. Webster, manager of the association.

During the coming season considerable additions to the shipping volume of the citrus association will be made. Bradbury Estate company, having over 300 acres of oranges and lemons, will ship thru the association this season, following the closing of their own packing house at San Marino.

Observations

(By G. B. M.)

HAVEN—

Sierra Madre scores again. Lee Shippey, whose feature column is the saving bright spot of the editorial page of the Times has brought his family here to reside. Readers of that great metropolitan daily who have been enjoying the good humor and illuminating comment in "The Lee Side of L. A." will be keenly interested.

Mr. Shippey paid a fraternal call to the News office the other day, to the delights of the staff. I forgot to ask him if he considered Sierra Madre on the lee side of stormy Los Angeles. At any rate, it seems plausible by reason of the quiet comfort which is possible to a degree seldom found so near the attractions and distractions of the big city.

VISUAL EDUCATION—

Still another feature of the Times which has a lot of interested followers is the cartoon work of Bruce Russell who has been a resident of Sierra Madre several years. His cartoons, especially those featured on the sport page, are a delight. And "Following the Ball with Bruce Russell" became a regular habit after the big football games. His play-by-play diagrams afforded the best possible means of visualizing the action for the football post mortems.

Those diagrams took me back to my early newspaper days when I used to diagram games for the Cedar Rapids Republican and covered the important contests played by the University of Iowa. That was so long ago that the forward pass was an absolute innovation. In fact it was almost as far back as the days when Doctor "Rusty" Herbert used to star on the Iowa teams.

VETERANS ON THE MOVE—

Speaking of newspaper men and Iowa, reminds me that J. B. Hungerford and his son, John Hungerford, formerly publishers of the Carroll Herald, have purchased the Upland News from W. E. Westland. The elder Hungerford was editor of the Herald for forty-one years, and his son, who was brought up in the business, will be the active manager of their new paper.

The Upland News has been in the hands of the Westland family for more than twenty years. Editor "Billy" Westland and his breezy column will be missed from the exchange table, as he will be missed from the ranks when the newspaper fraternity gathers, unless he forms another connection. He is one of the men who have made a success of the business, and has contributed liberally of his time and energy toward newspaper organization work.

Fat, Fair and Bald-headed

Wish to correspond with lady to early marriage, must be poor working lady. I am poor working man, but honest, and the lady must be same, age 35, weight 210 lbs., 5 ft., 8 in., baldheaded, but good looking.—Denver Post.

War Against Tuberculosis Needs Funds

"There is still time to send in your Christmas Seal contribution and make possible the constructive health program planned for our community by the Tuberculosis committee" reminds Robert Mitchell, chairman of the Tuberculosis Committee of the Los Angeles County Public Health Association.

"If in the rush of the holidays you have forgotten to send in your $2 to headquarters at 1700 Michigan Avenue, Los Angeles, will you please do so now, so that the big battle against tuberculosis may go on this year and save the children in your own neighborhood who are not as strong as they should be from becoming victims to the disease and perhaps becoming crippled for life.

"Tuberculosis is preventable. It is estimated that 20 per cent of all the crippled children in California are in their pitiful condition from this disease which the Christmas Seal is battling to stamp out.

"Again let me urge you, if you have not yet sent in your Christmas Seal contribution do so now, so that this year's budget for the health program carried on in your district may be made up," Mr. Mitchell emphasizes.

Jazz To Develop Into The Folk Songs of United States

Jazz will develop into the folk song of America, declares Eva Gauthier, international soprano, who will be heard in one of her extraordinary recitals next Sunday afternoon, January 15, at the Hollywood Playhouse.

Jazz is an important phase, Mme. Gauthier believes, although only a phase, of American music and better things are destined to come of it. The outstanding feature of present day jazz, says Mme. Gauthier, is its rhythm. "The modern composers in Europe," she says, "are trying to imitate the American jazz rhythm, but they can't. They approach it but they can't equal it. It isn't what is written down that makes the jazz. It is what comes in between the notes. Many Americans go abroad to study with Ravel, but Ravel says 'They can learn elsewhere all I can teach them.'

Mme. Gauthier is doing what few present-day artists are doing — she is bringing out something new, never afraid to try an experiment, she does on her courageous way, one of the finest and most extraordinary singers on the concert stage.

Huge Sum Is Expended for New Car Lines

More than $3,000,000 was expended during the year just ended in additions and improvements to various properties on the Pacific Electric system, revealed an announcement by D. W. Pontius, manager of the local railway. As much or more will be necessary to provide for further planned Pontius added.

Outstanding in the improvements made in 1927 was the extremely large volume of trackage renewed, heavier and improved rail being used. Thruout the system a total of 26,400 feet was replaced, the bulk of it being of the sturdy 128-pound formerly used.

The erection of two major grade separations, Pico Street and Hyperion Avenue, were the outstanding during 1927. Four streets were separated by these two projects. Further safety measures were provided through the installation of 55 automatic wig-wag devices over the system, making the total 555 now employed to warn of approaching trains.

New passenger station facilities were provided at the Hill Street Subway Station, at Santa Ana and Pasadena, while at Long Beach a pretentious new station is nearing completion. In addition numerous shelter stations were erected at various points over the system.

Other important improvements designed to improve service were:

New substation at San Gabriel; five deluxe motor coaches; overhead reconstruction and miscellaneous additions and improvements to bridges, buildings and other structures over the system.

Al Malaikah To Initiate Big Class

Initiation activities at Al Malaikah Temple for 1928 will be given a colorful start on January

17, when about 200 candidates will be escorted across the hot sands of the desert. The ceremonial will be held in the ballroom of the Shrine Civic Auditorium and the affair will carry older members back to the early day of "Shrinedom," when all such events were held on hall boars instead of stages. Exceptional entertainment is promised by the committee in charge and by Potentate Sim W. Crabill.

Interesting News Notes from Sierra Madre Canyon

Members of the Canyon Improvement Association have been requested through their organization to draw attention to the fact that there is a wave of sentiment now sweeping over the country in favor of every state choosing a favorite bird, wild flower and tree for its emblem. Most of the states have a state flower, some have a state tree and several have already elected a state bird.

California has the reputation of always being at the front in any improvement movement. All she needs is the signal shot by the firing squad to rouse her to action. That shot has been fired by the Cooper Ornithological Club through its official organ "The Condor" and it challenges all organizations whatever their creed of work to join the ranks and make known their feathered candidate for state bird. Only birds of economic habits and protected by our state laws can lay claim to the honor of having their names placed on the ballot. They must also be species found throughout the state.

California stands at the head of all the states of the union in its number of species and sub-species of native birds, the last official check list being 604 according to Dr. Joseph Grinnell of the Museum of Vertebrate Zoology of our state university at Berkeley. The birds range in size from the tiny Hummingbird to the California Condor.

With the giant Sequoia (Sequoia Gigantea) as our state tree, the beautiful golden California poppy state flower and some bright colored bird typical of our golden sunshine as our state bird and the cinnamon brown bear upon our state flag, California's set of living emblems will be complete and she can forge ahead in history without fear of rivalry. Already the following states have adopted a state bird: Maine has the Chickadee, New York the Bluebird, Kansas the Eastern Meadowlark, Nebraska the Western Meadowlark, Texas the Mockingbird and Kentucky the Cardinal.

Mrs. F. T. Bicknell, president emerita of the Los Angeles Audubon Society has published an interesting article in the December issue of The Clubwoman, excerpts from which are here used. Readers of this column will find it worth while to read the entire article in which Mrs. Bicknell announces that a list of the favorite bird candidates will be given in the January and February Clubwoman.

It will be remembered that the Canyon Improvement Association recently requested the City Trustees to prepare an ordinance for the protection of our local birds and squirrels, due to the tendency of children to destroy these tiny creatures with air rifles and sling shots.

Residents on Audubon Way are most desirous of having some sort of temporary bridge at the lower end of the old swimming pool. The former bridge was removed during the construction of walls along the stream channel and has not yet been replaced. At present folks are compelled to walk several blocks out of the way to reach their mail boxes which are located near the Canyon Store.

Miss Minerva Boatright had as her guests at her cottage "Virgo Inn" over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. James G. Weir, Miss Eva B. Thurn of Long Beach and Miss Helen Holland of Los Angeles. Miss Thurn and Miss Holland returned to their homes on Sunday but Mr. and Mrs. Weir will remain indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barner of Long Beach occupied their cottage on Sunnyside over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Price and their daughter Helen enjoyed a short stay in their cottage "Dolly's Folly" from Friday until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Meryweather, Mrs. Emma Thornberg and Mr. Aldrich of Long Beach spent Sunday with Mrs. Myrtle Bradford at Bellview Cabin on Woodland Drive.

Mrs. E. A. Anderson met her daughters Mrs. J. H. Burke and Mrs. H. B. Paisley in Los Angeles on Friday. After attending the theater Mrs. Anderson returned with Mrs. Burke to Long Beach where she remained until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon S. Griswold spent Thursday evening visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Key and family in Pasadena. Mr. and Mrs. Griswold report that the Key family is anxious to return to their home in the Canyon.

Bethany Welcomes Pastor and Wife—

"Welcome" written in large letters and hung over the threshold of Bethany hall, expressed the spirit of the reception, which was held Friday night in honor of the new pastor of the church, the Rev. W. D. Ogg, and Mrs. Ogg. The hall was beautifully decorated in greens and early spring blossoms, while a number of shaded lamps and easy chairs added to the home-like atmosphere.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. D. Moote, and Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Jensen and Mrs. John Lowe stood in the receiving line, and shortly after all the guests had arrived, a symbolic welcome was accorded the honorees. The Rev. and Mrs. Ogg were requested to stand in the center of the room, and were circled by eight members of the church, each representing a branch of the organization, and forming a wheel. The pastor and his wife were the hub of the wheel, and spokes were Mr. Jensen, representing the church; Mrs. John Lowe, the Missionary society; Roy Edwards, the Sunday school; Doris Bayard, the Christian Endeavor; Dorothy Moote, the Eteri club; Jack Jensen the Nuntius club; and Ashley Smith the juniors.

During the evening C. L. Custer of Pasadena sang a selection, accompanied by Merrill Jensen, and later led community singing. Refreshments were served by members of the Eteri club. Howard Southerland, Wallace Merrill and Mrs. Jensen were responsible for the decoration of the hall.

Unit Plans Tea at Park House

The American Legion Auxiliary is planning a tea, to be given in the Park House Monday, February 14, celebrating its "fourth" birthday anniversary. It was announced following the meeting last Thursday evening. All women in Sierra Madre who are eligible to membership will be invited, and eligibility requirements will be published later in the Press, so that women who have world-war connections may notify the unit president, Mrs. R. W. Stewart, or the chairman in charge of the tea, Mrs. Harold Roberts, so that invitations may be sent them.

A short program, which will be enjoyed by all will be planned by the Auxiliary.

At the meeting last Thursday Mrs. Arthur Evans, rehabilitation chairman brought forth the fact that the unit had made Christmas possible for at least three families, by furnishing toys for the children and remembering in some way all of the twenty-two ex-service men on the unit roll. Three dinner baskets, filled with Christmas provisions were distributed through the co-operation of the Auxiliary L. A. County Council. The local unit also made 200 stockings for the municipal tree.

Unexpected guests at the meeting were eight members of the Monrovia Unit, accompanied by their president, Mrs. Anne Lockwood, who spoke briefly on the accomplishments of the Monrovia Unit.

Mrs. Agnes Walker of Glendale Unit 127 was the guest of the evening. Mrs. Walker is ninth district chairman of child welfare and spoke of the aims and purposes of the committee. The committee is in charge of the war orphan homes at Burbank and Oakland, operated solely by the Auxiliary and responsible for clothing and feeding of hundreds of children of destitute ex-service men and women in California. Any donations of children's clothing and toys would be most acceptable, and those having articles are asked to call Mrs. H. C. Reavis, phone Red 251.

Eastern Star Has Fine Meeting

Tables in the form of a star, with huge baskets of yellow acacia and tall yellow candles met the delighted eyes of members of the Eastern Star last evening following the regular meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Finlayson and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mailer were responsible for the refreshments.

During the business session, when Linda Schwartz was installed as Esther, Miss Eleanor Bayne, worthy matron of the chapter, announced her standing committees as follows: Examining committee, Thomas Mailer; Mrs. Sadie Pasco and Madge Long; auditing committee, Miss Mabel Appleby; Mrs. Nettie Foster and Robert Finlayson; visiting committee, Mrs. Mary Gay; hospital committee, Mrs. Alice Staples; entertainment, Lorraine Mailer; house, Mrs. Johanna Saenger; decoration, Virginia Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clarkson of Pasadena attended the meeting, and were re-initiated, being the surprise candidates promised by Miss Bayne. Charles A. Holland and Cara Spring Holland, past grand matron of the State of California, also attended. Mrs. Holland was in attendance as official representative of Gladys Fitch Pierce, worthy grand matron.

First Organized Meeting Held

Members of the newly organized Woman's Society of the Congregational church are meeting today for the first time since the organization took effect, and Mrs. E. E. Bacon, president expected to name the various standing committees at the business session this morning. At an executive meeting just before the general meeting this morning, Mrs. Bacon appointed the chairman as follows:

Missionary program: Mrs. E. D. Burbank; ways and means, Mrs. Ralph Lord; calling, Mrs. S. H. Guilford; Mrs. Jerome Rice; decorations and flowers for sick, Mrs. W. S. Hull. The chairman will name their own committees. Dinner was to have been served at 12:30, with Mrs. Hoover's group in charge of the meal, after which Mrs. E. D. Burbank was to have presented a Missionary program. Dr. Jesse Smith, from Chile, was the speaker secured by Mrs. Burbank.

The Motor Car

THE motor car is a great invention. It has wiped out distances; it has annexed the most remote rural fastnesses to urban life, and has added a great impetus to business. It has cost a good deal, it is true, and there are those who wonder if the cost has not exceeded the value returned, but I leave that question to the economists to determine.

The automobile has helped to settle a good many difficult social questions, and not the least of these, I think, is the question of what the young fellow with no particularly definite religious convictions shall do on Sunday. What to do with leisure has been a more and more pertinent question as the hours of labor have been gradually cut down. When I was a boy we went to work at five in the morning, or earlier when occasion demanded, and ceased our activities when darkness drove us into the house. Even on rainy days there was work which could be performed in the woodshed or in the barn, and on Sunday we found social, if not spiritual recreation in going to church. We had very little leisure hanging heavy on our hands as compared with the youth of today.

The motor car, however, relieves the mind of any strain as to what to do with his time. Any young fellow can manage with a little strategy and economy to come into personal possession of an invalid auto. If he does not have the money, he can go into partnership with some other acquaintance. Cars can always be bought on time, and paying for them occupies a part of one's leisure.

With a forty-dollar car one is as fully occupied as if he were in love. As I was going to church last Sunday I passed four centers of interest where groups of young fellows were performing certain surgical operations upon crippled machines, or giving them their weekly shampoo and bath.

It is Sunday morning only that the youthful car owner spends in getting his machine into condition. The afternoon is different. After dinner he loads up and is off for a spin. It is amazing how fast the belt-rattle-trap can travel; it is unbelievable how many can be crowded into even a one-seated coupe. There are accidents, of course, but there is the old saying about Providence looking after fools and children. They go somewhere, they get back sometime, and the old car has furnished employment for another Sunday. On the whole, there aren't so many injured or killed as one might expect.

Steam-Cleaning Stone

Dirty-faced stone buildings that blush dark with shame between clean, new structures can now be steam-cleaned so that they not merely look almost as good as new, but retain the mellow, refined look of ripe age. The bureau of standards has conducted a series of tests to determine the best way of cleaning buildings. Old-fashioned methods of acid cleaning, sand blasting, scrubbing with soft powders and hand brushes are effective, but very slow and laborious.

Live steam cleaning was first tried on dirty stones in the laboratory, and then on a twenty-year-old accumulation of dirt on an old bank building in Baltimore. The result showed that this new method could be used rapidly with inexperienced labor, although the cost is somewhat higher than for acid cleaning. The cost is expected to drop when the method passes the experimental stage.

Partridge Has Hard Time

The English partridge has to fight against many conditions and odds in its battle for existence, and naturalists there tell many interesting stories of contests in which the birds are engaged, there being a large number of natural enemies ready to slay the bird or rob the nests of eggs and young.

The seasons are bad; the cold rains cause the death of many young birds; the fox forever is after the partridge. The birds hunt secluded places for their nests, and have been known to build a new nest about the eggs that have been trampled down when the nest was wrecked by accident.

Water's Boiling Point

On a thermometer 212 degrees Fahrenheit or 100 degrees centigrade indicates the boiling point of water.

Famous Educator

William Holmes McGuffey was an American educator born in Washington county, Pennsylvania, September 23, 1800; died in Charlottesville, Va., May 4, 1887. He was graduated at Washington college, Pennsylvania, in 1826. He was professor of moral philosophy at Miami university, Woodward college, Cincinnati, and then until his death professor at the University of Virginia.

Tree's Distinct Value

Longleaf pine is a particularly valuable tree for farm woodlands in many parts of the South because of its capacity to grow in the poorest and deepest sandy types of soil. It will grow on the driest soil as well as on wet lands, and with dual products of timber and turpentine often may convert such lands from an economic liability into an asset.

Bell Ringing

The expression "ringing a change" is derived from bell ringing. Change ringing was not known until the beginning of the Seventeenth century. The art made rapid progress, and rings of bells increased from 4 to 6 to 10 or 12. With 12 bells, 479,001,000 changes can be rung.

Deadly African Fly

Tsetse is a small, brownish fly found in the warm parts of South Africa, particularly in the central part of the Zambesi valley. Its bite is fatal to most domestic animals, but harmless to wild beasts, goats and asses. It is now known to disseminate sleeping sickness among the natives.

Now Italian Territory

Coastland is the northern part of Italy, formerly a part of Austria, and called Kustenland. It comprises the former crownlands of Trieste, Gorizia, Gradiska and Istria, with a population of 900,000, and was ceded to Italy at the close of the World war.

First Record of Falls

The Great Falls of the Missouri river, near the present town of Great Falls, were first made known by Lewis and Clark, who arrived there June 13, 1805. The falls possibly had been seen earlier by French trappers, but they made no record of them.

Meaning of "Alaska"

The territory ceded by Russia in 1867 had been known up to that time as Russian America. It was called Alaska by William H. Seward, our secretary of state, this being a corruption of the Aleut word alashak or alayaksa, meaning a great country or continent.

Under Many Flags

Florida has changed ownership nine times. Spain held it from 1513 to 1718; France, 1718 to 1723; Spain, next to 1763; Britain, next to 1781; Spain, to 1818; the United States, 1819; the Confederacy, from 1861 to 1865, and the United States, since 1865.

Masterpiece of Art

Von Munkacsy's famous painting, "Christ Before Pilate," was completed in 1881. This painting was purchased by John Wanamaker for $160,000 and was awarded a gold medal at the international exhibition in 1889.

Immortal Elegy

Elegy is a poem generally of a mournful or plaintive nature. The Greeks first applied the term to a funeral ode. The best example in English literature is Gray's "Elegy in a Country Churchyard."

Character Revealed

To be tempted to anger and hold the rebellious tongue in silence, to refrain in the tempestuous spirit—that is the height of good breeding. It is also the indication of a great character.—Exchange.

Many Crude Oil Products

The total number of chief products that are taken from crude oil is estimated at nearly 500. And there is a possibility that still more may be evolved by new "cracking," distilling and refining methods.

Press Job Department Busy on Big Publishing Order

An order for 5000 copies of a 44-page booklet for Griffith Jones, well-known Los Angeles attorney, is engrossing the attention of the Press job department to such an extent this week that newspaper publishing is being somewhat neglected, the Press appearing several hours late.

The booklet contains six of the addresses on psychology delivered by Mr. Jones over KFI, as a regular feature of the Friday evening program. The whole forms a most entertaining and instructive volume.

The forty-thousand run was put on the Kelley press late Saturday afternoon and a large number of the booklets will be ready for delivery today.
